

Pennsylvania College of Technology

Policy Statement

Title: Satisfactory Academic Progress for Students Receiving Financial Aid

Number: P4.32

Approved by:
Board Action
Presidential Action

Approved Date: 04/1983
Implementation Date: 04/1983
Last Review Date: 07/2021
Last Revision Date: 07/2021

Persons/Departments Affected:

Students receiving federal or state-funded financial aid; Financial Aid
Department; Academic and Student Affairs; Information Technology Services.

Responsible Department:

Financial Aid

Policy:

To be eligible to receive financial aid, students must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) toward the completion of a degree or certificate. The standards for measuring progress follow federal and Pennsylvania state government regulations, and are provided on the College's Financial Aid website.

Revision History:

Date: 07/2021 Updated the Financial Aid website link.

Date: 11/2015 Minor editing and updated the Financial Aid website link.

Date: 03/2011 Revised to Affirm compliance with all regulating guidelines. The government regulations, updated regularly, are provided on the College's Financial Aid website.

Date: 07/2007 Updating semester and credit requirements per Federal guidelines.

Date: 06/1992 Updating Penn College policy guidelines to meet the Federal guidelines.

Date: 07/1988