By signing this document, I consent to Penn College providing my information to the U.S. Department of Education and its agents for obtaining a report of my credit record and using the information from that report in determining whether to make a Federal Direct PLUS Loan to me. I understand that the Department of Education will notify me in writing of the results of the credit check with respect to my loan application.

Direct Loan Disclosure Statement – You will receive a Federal Direct Loan Disclosure Statement from the Direct Loan Servicing Center, up to 30 calendar days before the first anticipated disbursement. The Disclosure Statement identifies the loan type, anticipated loan disbursement amounts and dates, anticipated net disbursement amounts, loan fee and fee rebate amount, and gives other important information regarding your loan.

Use of Loan Funds – Funds received from the Federal Direct PLUS Loan are to be used solely for educational expenses. Educational expenses include tuition, room and board, books, transportation costs, tools, etc.

Loan Cancellation – Before your funds are disbursed, you may cancel or reduce the amount of your loan by notifying Penn College’s Financial Aid Office in writing. If your loan has already been disbursed, you can still cancel the loan in one of two ways: (1) You may contact Penn College’s Bursar’s Office about returning funds, or (2) You can pay back all or a part of your loan to Direct Loans within 120 days of the date your loan funds disburse to the College. Your loan will be adjusted to eliminate any interest, loan fee, and rebate amount that applies to the amount of the loan that you cancel/return during this timeframe.

Payment of Interest – Interest begins accruing on the Direct PLUS Loan from the date the loan is first disbursed – including during periods of deferment or forbearance – until it is repaid in full. If you do not pay the interest as it is charged, Direct Loans will capitalize the interest (add it to the unpaid principal amount of your loan) when you enter an active repayment status. Capitalization increases the unpaid principal balance of your loan, and interest will then be charged on the new, increased principal amount.

The chart below shows the difference in the amount you would repay on a $15,000 PLUS Loan if you pay the interest as it is charged during a 12-month deferment or forbearance period, compared to the amount you would repay if you choose to not pay the interest and instead have it capitalized.

	If you pay the interest as it is charged ...	If you do not pay the interest and it is capitalized ...
Loan Amount	$15,000	$15,000
Capitalized Interest for 12 Months	$0	$1,185
Principal to be Repaid	$15,000	$16,185
Monthly Payment (standard Repayment Plan)	$181	$196
Number of Payments	120	120
Total Amount Repaid	$21,744	$23,462

Information you must report - While your dependent student is still in school, you must notify the Penn College Financial Aid Office if (1) you change your address or telephone number; (2) you change your name (for example, maiden name to married name); (3) your dependent student does not enroll at least half-time for the loan period certified by the College; (4) your dependent student stops attending Penn College or drops below half-time enrollment; or (5) your dependent student graduates or transfer to another school.

You must also notify the Direct Loan Servicing Center of any of the above changes at any time after you receive your loan. In addition, you must notify the Direct Loan Servicing Center if you (1) change employers, or if your employer’s address or phone number changes; or (2) have any other change in status that affects your loan (for example, if you received a deferment but no longer meet the eligibility requirements for that deferment).
