

Do you know a student that would benefit from a Penn College education?

As a Penn College alum, you have the opportunity to support your alma mater by referring a student to the College. When this completed alumni referral card is included with a completed application for admission, the applicant's $100 tuition deposit will be waived.

The alumni referral card is not valid until the application for admission is received. Referrals will not be accepted after the application is received and processed in the Admissions Office.
