

Madigan Library

ABC100/120 – Collision Repair

Rhonda Fisher, Part-time Librarian

Instructor: Stephen Duna

Instructor: Michael Bierly

Key Government Resources for Collision Repair

Federal

NASA Best Practices for Crash Modeling and Simulation

National Highway Traffic Safety Administration

The NHTSA is a major source for information on crash statistics, air bags, child passenger safety, and other topics related to vehicle safety.

Volpe Center

The Volpe Center is an internationally recognized center of transportation and logistics expertise. Through research and development, engineering, and analysis, the Volpe Center helps decision-makers define problems and pursue solutions to lead transportation into the 21st century.

Code of Federal Regulations

Federal regulations codified in the Code of Federal Regulations.

Federal Register

The Federal Register is the official daily publication for rules, proposed rules, and notices of Federal agencies and organizations, as well as executive orders and other presidential documents.

State and Local

Pennsylvania Vehicle Code \(Title 75\)

The vehicle code details equipment standards for inspections, emission standards, etc.

Basic Web Links for Collision Repair

Car-O-Liner

Leading supplier of equipment for collision repair.

Chief Automotive Systems

Source for information on collision theory, links to local and nationwide training, new equipment information is highlighted.

Gold Book: Price Authority for Classics and Collectibles

The Gold Book is the oldest continuously published authority on collector car values. Find values for the 1886 Benz, the 1999 Morgan Roadster, or hundreds of makes and models in between.

I-Car

An independent, non-profit technical training organization with an ultimate goal that "Every person in the collision repair industry has the technical knowledge and skills relevant to their position to ensure a safe and complete repair."

Kelley Blue Book

Two types of values given for trade-ins: dealer and consumer, new car prices, and lemon check.

N.A.D.A. Guides

Used prices for classic cars, motorcycles, planes, and many other vehicles.

National Automotive Technicians Education Foundation

"NATEF was founded in 1983 as an independent, non-profit organization with a single mission: To evaluate technician training programs against standards developed by the automotive industry and recommend qualifying programs for certification (accreditation) by ASE, the National Institute for Automotive Service Excellence."

National Institute for Automotive Service

ASE has a single mission: To improve the quality of automotive service and repair through the voluntary testing and certification of automotive technicians.

Metal Web News

A virtual newsletter for online metal enthusiasts.

Society of Collision Repair Specialists

The SCRS is committed to the future of the collision repair industry: to provide the leadership needed; raise the professional image of the individual and the industry; and develop new leaders to carry forward. Their goal is to educate, inform, and represent the Collision Repair Professional in all aspects of the industry.

Spook Hollow Auto Wreckers, Inc.

Local business with an online database of auto parts. Located in Linden, Pa (570-398-7147).

Virtual Collision Repair Shop

Take an online tour of a collision repair job from the view point of a health and safety inspector.

Key Databases for the Collision Repair Assignment

Career & Technical Education

ProQuest

500 Vocational and technical periodicals covering all aspects of the Vo/Tech curriculum. Includes full-text articles for 402 journal titles.

Wilson Applied Science Full Text

Cover-to-cover full images for the leading periodicals in science and technology. Subject coverage includes computers, engineering, physics, telecommunications and transportation.