

Attention, IT Students

Dan Clarke, a 2007 BSS graduate, is coming back to Penn College to share his knowledge on his position as a Systems Engineer for Cisco Systems, and provide tips on how to be successful in the information technology field.

Tuesday, Oct. 4, 3:30 to 5 p.m.

ATHS, Room E140

Make plans to attend, as this presentation will be well worth your time. Dan will provide insight on real-world experience and offer tips that will help you get a leg up on the competition when your graduation day finally arrives.

Sponsored by the Penn College Cisco Networking Academy

Questions? Email Jeff Weaver (jweaver@pct.edu) or Lisa Bock (lbock@pct.edu)