

Short- Term Contract Information

Penn College offers a limited number of short-term contracts to students in the Ford Asset and Honda PACT program. The Honda PACT/Ford Asset Contract is designed for students in the Ford Asset and Honda PACT programs. This contract allows students to reside on-campus half of the fall and half of the spring semester and a set number of weeks during the summer term. This contract coincides with the academic program schedule for students enrolled in these programs. For this program, students will pay approximately the rate of a full year contract during the year and approximately $120/week for the summer term.
