

Lawn & Landscape, and its parent company, GIE Media, the leading media company serving the lawn and landscape, golf course, nursery, greenhouse and garden center markets, has established a fund to support academic scholarships and business internship placements for outstanding college students focused on leading in the green industry.

Eligibility criteria:

To be eligible for an academic scholarship or an internship program, you must be enrolled at a recognized two-or four-year college or university working toward a degree in horticulture, environmental science or other field related to a segment of the green industry.

Requirements:

Your application must include:

- Your most recent academic transcript or student advisory tracking report
- At least two letters of recommendation from a college professor, councilor, adviser or clergy
- A resume outlining your relevant activities and work experience
- 1,000 word essay describing your personal and professional goals, with examples of your leadership of fellow students, co-workers or others in your community
- If applying for the internship, please also include a cover letter outlining why you would make a good candidate and what you hope to learn

Interest:

Please indicate which program you are applying for. You can check both:

- Scholarship – a cash award for demonstration of outstanding academic performance and leadership
- Internship – an opportunity to work with the editors at Lawn & Landscape magazine to further develop your communication skills, industry contacts and business knowledge

Application Date:

Applications must be postmarked by April 15, 2011.
