LEADERSHIP

Today's competitive business environment demands that successful companies develop and maintain top talent in order to stay ahead of their competitors. Nowhere within an organization is this need more critical than in its leadership structure. Focused, skilled leaders overcome the daily challenges of organizational operations, and they attract and retain top talent at every level.

The Penn College Leadership Series is designed to meet the unique challenges faced by leaders across the organizational structure, from front line supervisors to C-suite executives. Covering multiple topics across core competencies, this cutting edge series is a comprehensive solution to leadership development.

"Awesome instructor, very knowledgeable and keeps you interested in the subject matter. With all of the courses I have taken in my military and civilian career, this is by far the best I have ever attended."
