Le Jeune Chef Restaurant, operated by the School of Business, Arts & Sciences on the campus of Pennsylvania College of Technology, is a casual fine dining experience that offers real-life training to Baking & Pastry Arts and Culinary Arts Technology students. It is also one of the most highly sought-after dining pleasures in our area and offers the region’s most extensive award-winning wine list. Patrons enjoy discreet yet attentive service, plus the opportunity to receive expert advice while making their food and wine selections, in the restaurant's teaching-learning environment. Le Jeune Chef hosts special events throughout the year and gift certificates are available.

Make your next event a delicious success with Le Jeune Chef catering! Catering services are available on and off campus for meetings, events, and special occasions.

Menus and Pricing
The College reserves the right to make reasonable substitutions in menu selection. Menu prices are subject to change due to the fluctuations in market pricing and other factors. If pricing changes, the client will be notified. Pricing will be confirmed once a signed contract and deposit is received.

Tax and Service Charges
All food and beverage prices are subject to applicable service charges. A 15% service charge will be added for on-campus catering and 20% will be added for off-campus services. The service charge is not the property of any specific employee. Applicable taxes will be charged on taxable items. Sales to non-profit organizations and government entities are taxable unless you are an exempt Federal agency. Please inquire if you have questions.

Meal Counts
Final meal counts are due five business days prior to all functions. If Penn College has not been notified within the time frame specified, the client will be billed for the guaranteed guest count or actual guest count, whichever is greater. Any decrease in guest count could necessitate an increase in per person cost. No refunds will be given for late arrivals, early departures, or missed meals.

Cancellation Policy
A 50% deposit of the event cost will be required upon signing of the event contract. Deposit refunds will be issued based upon the following notice of cancellation schedule: 100% deposit refund- 60 business days or more prior to scheduled event, 50% deposit refund- 11-59 business days prior to scheduled event, no deposit refund within 10 business days prior to event start date. Additional charges beyond the 50% deposit may be incurred if cancelling within 10 business days prior to the event.

Payment
Penn College will invoice for the remaining balance plus any incidental charges incurred before or during the event. Payment will be required within 30 days after the event.

Note
It is Penn College catering providers’ responsibility to follow food safety and sanitation guidelines as established by the PA Department of Health to prevent foodborne illnesses. Therefore, the College is not held liable on any claims that might occur from removal and consumption of prepared food items, cooked, perishable or otherwise, outside designated catering function areas. These liabilities include but are not limited to any health hazards resulting from improper or inappropriate handling, storage, and display of removed food items.

*CONSUMER ADVISORY PER PA DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE FOOD CODE, 3-603-11
Consuming raw or undercooked meats, poultry, seafood, shellfish, or eggs may increase your risk of food borne illness, especially if you have certain medical conditions. See maître d’hôtel for details.
