Pennsylvania College of Technology has long been a leader in providing training across a broad spectrum of computer applications. From the novice learning a new program, to seasoned users aiming to hone the most advanced skills, our vast library of available course topics meets the needs of any business. By building skills in the applications employees use most often, computer training quickly impacts performance and the bottom line.

OUR MOST IMPORTANT CRITICS SAY IT BEST…

“I liked that it was hands-on. What I learned will simplify my work.”

“There were many things I picked up from this course. I was only using 10% of the capabilities of Excel prior to this course.”

“One of the best courses I have taken. Both the content and instructor were excellent.”

“Great instructor; she took time to catch you up and make sure everyone was on the same page! Great course!”

“Outlines will now be a breeze. I’ll be more efficient at work.”

“I am now confident in returning to my clinic being able to build an effective educational lecture for our staff.”
