At the present time, the courses below are required by Johnson College's Radiologic Technology and/or Physical Therapist Assistant majors and are listed as equivalent to Penn College courses required in the bachelor's degree; that list may change over time, and additional courses can be evaluated for equivalency upon request.

- For the PTA program, the ART131 course will only be used as ARP elective if not used in the Block area in Table 1.
- A course may only satisfy a program requirement in one of the three categories represented above (i.e., courses cannot be applied to the degree progress audit more than once).

Through the options identified above, graduates of Johnson College's Radiologic Technology major can transfer up to 70 credits toward the Healthcare Leadership & Administration major, with as few as 50 credits left to complete to earn the bachelor's degree.
