

Alumni Highlights

Whitnie-Rae Haldeman

2014, Graphic Design

Whitnie opened a design studio, RSVP, in Downtown Hanover, PA where she offers workshops, outdoor photography, custom gifts, vinyl decals, graphic design services and more. Whitnie is passionate about helping others and has assisted many of the local businesses in her area with social media managing, graphic design, web design, and promotional products. One of her recent projects was designing a brand and logo for The Youth and Children's Advocacy Network (THEY CAN), whose mission is to educate, advocate and empower families who are navigating the complex world of special health care needs.

Alumni Events

Alumni Basketball Reunion

February 1-2

Snow Tubing at Ski Sawmill

Saturday, February 16

Alumni News

Civil engineer honored with Alumni Achievement Award

A civil engineer who is serving as a project manager for the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation's $670 million Central Susquehanna Valley Transportation project was honored with an Alumni Achievement Award at Pennsylvania College of Technology's Fall 2018 commencement ceremonies, held Dec. 22 at the Community Arts Center.

Freeze-framing a day to remember

Pennsylvania College of Technology held its Fall 2018 commencement on Saturday, Dec. 22, in the Community Arts Center, bringing down the curtain on another season of academic success. The student speaker was Katherine Lynne Mertes, of Williamsport, who was awarded a bachelor's degree in residential construction technology and management: building construction technology concentration. Also addressing the Class of '18 was Joanna K. Flynn, associate professor of mathematics, who was presented with the Veronica M. Muzic Master Teacher Award in May.

Forestry students extensively tour local veneer operation

Students in Erich R. Doebler's Forest Products class visited the Danzer plant on Reach Road, one of the few veneer mills in Pennsylvania. The group met with Paul R. South, a 2016 forest technology graduate of Penn College.

Penn College is Coming to Florida!

The Penn College Alumni Relations Office is once again making plans to head to Florida the first week of March. We are hoping to meet with as many of our alumni living in the Sunshine State as possible. Our current plans include a Dinner/Happy Hour on Friday, March 8 in Tampa, but the rest of the week is completely open. Please email us if you would like to meet for coffee/lunch at another time or in another location. We are looking forward to sharing the awesome things happening at Penn College.

Pennsylvania Farm Show Winner

Thank you to all of the alumni who stopped at the Penn College booth at the Farm Show. Congratulations to our winner of the alumni swag bag Michael Womelsdorf, '08 technology management, '06 electronics technology. Michael please email our office to confirm your mailing address.

Penn College Events

Join us for our MLK Dream Week 2019 Events, starting with our Peace Walk on January 19! View the full schedule of events to learn more.

Penn College News

SkillsUSA video features college's all-female welding team

Children's 'Wish List' fulfilled by college family

B.R. Kreider & Son establishes two Penn College scholarships

Papers to be published in Journal of Business Leadership

Volunteer Opportunities

"Life's most persistent and urgent question is, What are you doing for others?."

-Martin Luther King Jr.

Thank you to the following alumni who have volunteered in the past month:

- Carlene Cabot, '11 occupational therapy assistant, '92 advertising art
- Caleb Schirmer, '16 applied management, '14 landscape/horticulture technology

The following volunteer opportunities available:

- Open House-Saturday, April 6
- Accepted Student Receptions-various Pennsylvania locations, April and May...more information coming soon!

Email us if you are available to volunteer.

Privacy Policy

Pennsylvania College of Technology
One College Avenue, Williamsport, PA 17701