WE ARE D

AND WE LIKE IT THAT WAY.

At Penn College, we learn by doing. Whether it's designing a new product or honing our leadership skills, we know that practice makes perfect.

Crowded lecture halls aren't for everyone. That's why we spend three hours in labs doing what we love for every one hour we study theory.

Thanks to the immersive experiences and all the opportunities to master our crafts, Wildcats feel confident and ready to make a difference the first day on the job.

We're not your typical college. And it's easy to see why our hands-on approach attracts students from around the region and across the nation. Because it's worth going the distance to find a community you can call your own.

Finding the perfect college goes far beyond academics.

Naturally, you want the total package—

a program and a place that will take you where you want to go. Whether you crave outdoor activities, a cozy coffee shop, or easy access to cultural hubs like NYC, Philadelphia, and Pittsburgh, you'll find it all right here.

THE PERFECT BALANCE.

Main campus is nestled alongside the peaceful Susquehanna Valley, which puts you at the edge of outdoor perfection. Looking for a dose of high fashion and world-famous art? No problem. We're not too far away from major metros.

Clean air, wide open spaces, and an invitation for exploration is yours.

➔ LET'S DIVE IN.

Stock up on farm-fresh produce at the Grower's Market every Saturday.

Stop over for First Friday and see downtown alive with street vendors, special performances, and outdoor music.

Want to visit downtown? Hop on the free

bus that connects campus with all corners of town and you'll be there in minutes.

From pubs and restaurants to boutiques and art galleries, there's something for everyone. If popular chain stores are your thing, we've got those, too. Find delicious wood-fired pizza and Thai cuisine along with an eclectic collection of pottery, jewelry, and more from local artists.

Make it a grand slam.

Visit the area and you'll quickly see that we love our baseball. The Crosscutters, Williamsport's MLB Draft League team, plays at Historic Bowman Field just minutes from campus. Williamsport also hosts the Little League Baseball® World Series every August. We revel in watching the international games, being a part of the annual parade, and inviting players to campus. Our students get in on the action, too.

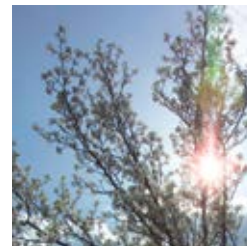

Baking, pastry, and culinary arts students get hands-on experience preparing meals for the teams. Graphic designers lend their creative talents. And students across all areas put their skills to work preparing for the Grand Slam Parade. When there's a chance to combine community service, real-world learning, and the Little League Baseball® World Series, count us in!

Wildcats take advantage of every chance they get to recharge in the great outdoors and bask in the beauty of the region. Tie up your hammock in Rose Street Commons. Opt for a morning jog on the nearby Riverwalk. Or gather your friends for a weekend hike on the epic Loyalsock Trail. Whatever your adventure level, we've got a hike, bike, run, or walk route for you. And if you're into hunting and fishing, there's prime game land and waterways here, too.
