COLLEGE HEALTH SERVICES

College Health Services is committed to the promotion of wellness through health education, prevention, early diagnosis and treatment of illness. All currently enrolled students are eligible to be assessed in College Health Services. Medical records are kept confidential and are not released without your written authorization. There is no charge to students for office visits, though a nominal fee will be charged for immunizations, medications, and supplies.

DISABILITY & ACCESS RESOURCES

Do you have a documented disability or diagnosis (ADHD, learning disability, anxiety, medical condition, etc.) and need accommodations? You can begin the registration process by contacting the Disabilities & Access Resources office directly. dar@pct.edu or 570-320-5225

Peer Mentors: Available in the Hudock Center

Peer Mentors understand the stresses and pressures of college life and can help you troubleshoot your situation, help connect you to campus resources, or just listen if that's what you need.

Stop into the Hudock Center or email peermentoring@pct.edu to get connected.

PENN COLLEGE ENGAGE

Engage is where students can find organizations to join, discover upcoming events, and get engaged.

STALL WALL ONLINE

Medical Amnesty/Good Samaritan MEDICAL AMNESTY

When medical care is sought for a student due to overconsumption of alcohol or a drug overdose, even if the affected student calls for themselves, the student will not face student conduct nor criminal charges.

GOOD SAMARITAN

When medical care is sought for a student by another student due to the overconsumption of alcohol or misuse of drugs, the reporting student will not face student conduct nor criminal charges, even if they have consumed alcohol or drugs.
